

SOCIETY

A VERY beautiful dinner was that given by Samuel Newhouse at his home last evening. Fourteen covers were laid at a large round table, in the center of which was an immense silver bowl of pink roses, these same flowers also being used on mantel and sideboard. As usual in the parlor and reception hall, only tall vases of American Beauties were seen.

Arthur J. Cooley, a prominent society man of Omaha, is a guest at the Knutsford hotel.

A large number of those who attended the opening of the Country club yesterday afternoon remained to supper and enjoyed an informal dance in the evening.

Baseball is becoming quite a popular sport with the members of society and every afternoon parties are seen attending the series of games now on at Walker's field.

Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes entertained at dinner today in honor of the birthday of Miss Grace Emery.

Arrangements are about completed for a large and brilliant social event to be given at the Kenyon hotel in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Griffin last evening celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage by giving a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carter. The table was very prettily arranged with apple blossoms. The invited guests were Dean and Mrs. Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Ferguson.

A few friends enjoyed a very pleasant informal evening yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Galtner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris gave a very informal dinner last evening in honor of the birthday of Miss Grace Emery.

A Denver paper of recent date contains the following account of a musical and card party given one evening last week by Mrs. Thomas Marionaux in honor of Mrs. George W. Snow and Miss Eva Snow of this city: "Mrs. Thomas Marionaux gave a beautifully appointed card party and musical last Wednesday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. William B. Kistler. The affair was in honor of Mrs. George W. Snow and Miss Eva Snow of Salt Lake City, who are Mrs. Marionaux's guests. Pink was the color scheme, it being used in the room, cards, prizes and refreshments, and the house was beautifully decorated with pink roses and sweet peas. Some seventy-five guests were present."

Mrs. N. A. Swift, one of Boise's leading musicians and president of the Boise Philharmonic association, is visiting in Salt Lake, a guest at the Kenyon hotel. The Philharmonic association has been most successful, and although Boise has a reputation only about one-fifth that of Salt Lake, Mrs. Swift says that at the concerts given by Blauvelt, Bauer and Schumann-Helm, under the auspices of the Philharmonic, the large music hall was crowded.

Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver leave Tuesday morning for a month's visit with Dr. Silver's parents in New York City. Dr. Silver will also attend the Y. M. C. A. convention at Buffalo before returning to Salt Lake.

Mrs. Francis G. Luke left last Tuesday for California to pass a portion of the summer there, later going to the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. Lydia D. Alder and daughter, Miss May Alder, left during the week for New York, where they will sail on May 13 for Berlin, where Mrs. Alder will speak at the quinquennial convention of the International Council of Women. At the close of the convention Mrs. Alder and daughter will make an extended tour of Europe and the Holy Land.

S. G. Roep has gone to southern Utah on a two months' visit.

Miss McGowan of Montreal, Canada, and Miss Galloway of Denver, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter, at the Kenyon. Miss McGowan has been visiting Miss Galloway in Denver, and will take place on the evening of May 23 at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fennimore announce the engagement of their daughter, Nell, to Will L. King. The wedding will take place on the evening of May 23 at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Martha Royle-King has changed the date of her pupils' recital from Wednesday evening, May 4, to Thursday evening, May 6.

C. P. Overfield leaves tomorrow for a month's visit in New York city.

Next Wednesday at 3 o'clock the ladies of the First Methodist church will give an informal afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. Elmer B. Jones will give a review of "The Deliverance," and a musical program will be rendered under the supervision of Mrs. Charles G. Plummer. Mrs. Plummer will sing a solo, the Misses Osborne will give a duet, Miss Mary Finley and Miss Isabel Osborne will sing under a solo. Members and friends of the ladies of the church are invited to attend this informal afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Clara Bailey and Dr. Enoch Van Cott will take place one week from Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Day. A large reception will follow the ceremony, which will be performed at 7 o'clock, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends.

Mrs. George F. Goodwin will read a paper on "Our Foreign Trade and What the United States Is Doing to Promote It," at the regular meeting of the Woman's Republican club tomorrow afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Stollhandke and Siebert Wornsdahl took place last Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. P. A. Simpkins of Phillips Congregational church performed the ceremony, in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom. In the evening a reception was held, attended by a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wornsdahl are at home to their friends at 350 East Fourth South street.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the regular meeting of the Home Protective league will be held at Davis Deaconess home, on East Third South street. A full attendance is desired, as the annual election of officers is to be held.

More than $200 was realized by the ladies of Phillips Congregational church at the rummage sale held yesterday afternoon in the church parlors.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the regular meeting of Unity club will be held at Unity hall. The programme will include a paper on "Kaiser Wilhelm II. as He Is" by Judge C. C. Goodwin, and the musical number which will be from Brahms, will be under the direction of Mrs. Charles G. Plummer. Arthur Shepherd will give a talk on Brahms, with instrumental selections by Brahms. Numbers from this same composer will also be given by Miss Berkehoel, Miss Allen and Miss Margaret Robertson.

The engagement of Miss Miriam Rose Zaccaria of Christ Church, New Zealand, and J. L. Schwartz, formerly traveling salesman for F. Auerbach & Co. of this city, has just been announced. The marriage will take place in the near future, and the bride and groom will return to Utah to make their home.

The George R. Maxwell W. R. C. and boys gave a joint card party and dance on Thursday night, which was largely attended and was enjoyed by all.

The B. of L. E. and the Ladies' society will give a joint social and card party on Tuesday evening, May 3, at B. of L. E. hall, corner First South and Main streets.

Foundling Goats.

The breeders of pure Angora goats must give close attention to their flocks the year round, says Country Life in America. A doe will often leave a newborn kid to join her flock as soon as it gets out of her sight, nor will she return to her kid unless the flock happens to feed that way. Naturally many kids are lost and others would die if they were not taken care of. A few head of well-bred goats may be found profitable on any farm, especially on a farm where brush killing is an improvement, as no other will destroy shrubs so quickly.

BREEDER HAS IT

If it is for the office.

Contamination of Deep Wells.

By a series of experiments which proved how readily deep wells and springs could experience pollution, the town of Quitman, Georgia, has been saved from the danger of an epidemic of disease. In this place the water supply of the city is derived from wells, and in planning a sewerage system it was proposed to dispose of the public sewage by directing it through a borehole into an underground stream. The possibility that contamination might result, however, was early suggested, and led to practical experiments being undertaken by the United States Geological Survey and the Geological Survey of Georgia, in order to determine the matter definitely. Two tons of salt were placed in the well where it was planned to empty the sewage, and the water from the various wells which had been previously examined, especially as to their chlorine contents, was again analyzed, samples being taken at intervals during and sometimes after the experiment. It was found that the salt had permeated all of the wells in the town, demonstrating conclusively that disease germs could be readily communicated to the drinking water. These experiments are in line with some carried on in Europe several years ago, where it was found that bacteria, placed in certain wells, could be detected at other sources of water in the vicinity, and emphasizing the importance of carefully examining and safeguarding water supplies under all conditions.—Harper's Weekly.

KOLITZ EXCURSION

To Ogden.

Sunday May 1st, via Oregon Short Line. Round trip only $1.60. Special train leaves Salt Lake 10:00 a. m., returning leave Ogden 10:00 p. m. Candy served free on train. Everybody invited.

They Worked Patti's Husband.

Baron Cederstrom, the husband of Adeline Patti, was not up to the wiles of some of the folk he met in Pittsburg. The Baron is somewhat fastidious as to the various articles he uses, and his cigars are each "labeled" to cost 40 cents wholesale. The price may be one or two more or less, but the aroma of the tobacco would indicate that they are somewhat costly for ordinary, everyday consumption among folks who have to depend on a weekly wage. An interviewer who was taking the Swedish nobleman discovered from him that the great songstress hated cigarettes above everything else—not even excepting a small and frigid audience. He passed the word around, and so when a bunch of other callers met the Baron they were all smoking cigarettes. There was only one way to abate this nuisance, and so the Baron had to produce his cigar box. He never suspected he was being "worked," but the whole proceeding was little better than a shell game so far as he was concerned. Some of these cigars are still unsmoked, being kept as souvenirs of the "last farewell."—Kansas City Journal.

Weakness in men is caused by inflammation of the prostate gland. Oregon Kidney Tea cures this.

Largest Grapevine.

The largest grapevine in the world is growing in the Carpinteria valley, several miles east of Santa Barbara, Cal. It is called La Pava Grande. It was started from a cutting sixty-one years ago by a young Spanish woman, Dona Ayia. It is eight feet four inches in circumference at its base, and one of the horizontal branches measures more than three feet in circumference. The trellis covers about a third of an acre, and sixty heavy posts support it. The vine produces as many as 5000 bunches annually, at a conservative estimate, and its good yields are clusters measure twelve to fifteen inches in length and weigh six to eight pounds. Its owner estimates that in 1895 the vine yielded ten tons of grapes.

"77"

Cures Grip and

COLDS

Humphreys' Specifics cure by acting directly on the sick parts without disturbing the rest of the system.

No. CURES

1. FEVERS, Congestions, Inflammations.

2. WOUNDS, WORM FEVER or Worm Disease.

3. COLIC, Cramping and Wakefulness of Diarrhea of Children and Adults.

4. TOOTHACHE, Pains in the Head, Stomach, Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo.

5. DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, Weak Stomach.

6. BALDNESS, Eruptions, Erysipelas.

7. RHEUMATISM, or Rheumatic Pains.

8. FEVER AND AGUE, Malaria, Chills.

9. WHOOPING COUGH, Spasmodic Cough.

10. URINARY DISEASE, Gravel, Calculi.

11. URINARY INCONTINENCE, Wetting Bed.

At Drugists, 25 cents each or mailed, Cloth Bound Book mailed free.

Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John streets, New York.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Admiral Sir Cyrril Bridge of the British navy, who before his retirement, was very successful in the East, was in the city today, on his way to England. In discussing the opinion that very large battleships have been proved undesirable.

No Desire to Catch Her.

James F. Sweeney, of the Suffolk (Mass.) bar, is noted for the brightness and aptness of his retorts. "Recently in a case a witness was very refractory under cross-examination, and although the lawyer used all politeness and mildness, sharp and unsatisfactory replies were received. Her meek and humble husband was present in court. Mr. Sweeney tried another innocent question, when the lady responded with vindictive fire flashing from her eyes: 'Mr. Lawyer, you needn't think you can catch me; no, sir; you can't catch my husband's attention.' Madam, I have not the slightest desire to catch you, and your husband looks to me as if he was sorry he had succeeded.' A ripple of laughter went round the courtroom, the judge stroked his mustache to hide a smile, and the clerk rapped for order."—Law Notes.

THE Dramatic Death of Roman Nose.

"In spite of his terrible wounds, the heroic Forsyth was thoroughly in command," Dr. Cyrus Townsend Brady writes, in telling the story of Forsyth's Rough Riders of '98 in the May Pearson's. "Waiting until the tactical moment when the Indians were but fifty yards away and coming at a terrific speed, he raised himself on his hands to a sitting position and cried, 'Now!'"

The men rose to their knees, brought their guns to their shoulders, and poured a volley right into the face of the furious advance. An instant later, with another cartridge in the barrel they delivered a second volley. Horses and men went down in every direction, but like the magnificent warrior he was, the Indians closed up and came sweeping down. The third volley was poured into them. Still they came. The war songs ceased by this time, but in undaunted spirit, still pealing his war cry above the crashing of the bullets, at the head of his band, with his magnificent determination unshaken, Roman Nose led such a ride as no Indian ever attempted before or since. And still those quiet, cool men continued to pour bullets into the horde. At the fourth volley the medicine man on left of the line, and the second in command, went down. The Indians hesitated at this reverse, but swinging his rifle high in the air in battle frenzy, the great war chief rallied them and they once more advanced. The fifth volley staggered them still more. Great gaps were opened in their ranks. Horses and men went down, but the impetus was so great and the courage and example of their leader so splendid that they came on unchecked. The sixth volley did the work.

"Just as he was about to leap upon the island Roman Nose and his horse were both shot to pieces. The force of the charge, however, was so great that the line was not yet entirely broken. The horsemen were within a few feet of the scouts when the seventh volley was poured into their very faces. As a gigantic wave meets a sharply jutted rock and is parted, falling harmlessly on either side of it, so was that charge divided, the Indians swinging themselves to the sides of their horses as they swept down the length of the island.

"The scouts sprang to their feet at this juncture and, almost at contact range, jammed their revolver shots into the disorganized masses. The Indians fled precipitately to the banks on either side, and the yelling of the war chants of the squares and children changed into walls of anguish and despair as they marked the death of Roman Nose and the horrible slaughter of his followers."

Five-Year-Old Boy Making Long Trip

Traveling Alone From Philadelphia to San Francisco to Meet His Father.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Fred Coggeshall, five years of age, left at 8 o'clock tonight for the Golden Gate. He has been made the special charge of the trans-continental from Philadelphia to San Francisco. The Grand Trunk railway brought him to Chicago, where he was transferred and placed in the special care of the agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, which road, in connection with the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, will land him in Oakland, Cal., where his father will meet him next Wednesday morning. This is one of the longest trips ever made by so young a child and the railroads show interest in him in order to show how they can safely handle children on trips of this character.

To the Ladies.

We want to remind you of the exquisite work we did in laundering your shirt waists last season. Our methods haven't changed.

TROY LAUNDRY,

156 Main St.

Contamination of Deep Wells.

By a series of experiments which proved how readily deep wells and springs could experience pollution, the town of Quitman, Georgia, has been saved from the danger of an epidemic of disease. In this place the water supply of the city is derived from wells, and in planning a sewerage system it was proposed to dispose of the public sewage by directing it through a borehole into an underground stream. The possibility that contamination might result, however, was early suggested, and led to practical experiments being undertaken by the United States Geological Survey and the Geological Survey of Georgia, in order to determine the matter definitely. Two tons of salt were placed in the well where it was planned to empty the sewage, and the water from the various wells which had been previously examined, especially as to their chlorine contents, was again analyzed, samples being taken at intervals during and sometimes after the experiment. It was found that the salt had permeated all of the wells in the town, demonstrating conclusively that disease germs could be readily communicated to the drinking water. These experiments are in line with some carried on in Europe several years ago, where it was found that bacteria, placed in certain wells, could be detected at other sources of water in the vicinity, and emphasizing the importance of carefully examining and safeguarding water supplies under all conditions.—Harper's Weekly.

KOLITZ EXCURSION

To Ogden.

Sunday May 1st, via Oregon Short Line. Round trip only $1.60. Special train leaves Salt Lake 10:00 a. m., returning leave Ogden 10:00 p. m. Candy served free on train. Everybody invited.

They Worked Patti's Husband.

Baron Cederstrom, the husband of Adeline Patti, was not up to the wiles of some of the folk he met in Pittsburg. The Baron is somewhat fastidious as to the various articles he uses, and his cigars are each "labeled" to cost 40 cents wholesale. The price may be one or two more or less, but the aroma of the tobacco would indicate that they are somewhat costly for ordinary, everyday consumption among folks who have to depend on a weekly wage. An interviewer who was taking the Swedish nobleman discovered from him that the great songstress hated cigarettes above everything else—not even excepting a small and frigid audience. He passed the word around, and so when a bunch of other callers met the Baron they were all smoking cigarettes. There was only one way to abate this nuisance, and so the Baron had to produce his cigar box. He never suspected he was being "worked," but the whole proceeding was little better than a shell game so far as he was concerned. Some of these cigars are still unsmoked, being kept as souvenirs of the "last farewell."—Kansas City Journal.

Weakness in men is caused by inflammation of the prostate gland. Oregon Kidney Tea cures this.

Largest Grapevine.

The largest grapevine in the world is growing in the Carpinteria valley, several miles east of Santa Barbara, Cal. It is called La Pava Grande. It was started from a cutting sixty-one years ago by a young Spanish woman, Dona Ayia. It is eight feet four inches in circumference at its base, and one of the horizontal branches measures more than three feet in circumference. The trellis covers about a third of an acre, and sixty heavy posts support it. The vine produces as many as 5000 bunches annually, at a conservative estimate, and its good yields are clusters measure twelve to fifteen inches in length and weigh six to eight pounds. Its owner estimates that in 1895 the vine yielded ten tons of grapes.

"77"

Cures Grip and

COLDS

Humphreys' Specifics cure by acting directly on the sick parts without disturbing the rest of the system.

No. CURES

1. FEVERS, Congestions, Inflammations.

2. WOUNDS, WORM FEVER or Worm Disease.

3. COLIC, Cramping and Wakefulness of Diarrhea of Children and Adults.

4. TOOTHACHE, Pains in the Head, Stomach, Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo.

5. DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, Weak Stomach.

6. BALDNESS, Eruptions, Erysipelas.

7. RHEUMATISM, or Rheumatic Pains.

8. FEVER AND AGUE, Malaria, Chills.

9. WHOOPING COUGH, Spasmodic Cough.

10. URINARY DISEASE, Gravel, Calculi.

11. URINARY INCONTINENCE, Wetting Bed.

At Drugists, 25 cents each or mailed, Cloth Bound Book mailed free.

Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John streets, New York.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Admiral Sir Cyrril Bridge of the British navy, who before his retirement, was very successful in the East, was in the city today, on his way to England. In discussing the opinion that very large battleships have been proved undesirable.

No Desire to Catch Her.

James F. Sweeney, of the Suffolk (Mass.) bar, is noted for the brightness and aptness of his retorts. "Recently in a case a witness was very refractory under cross-examination, and although the lawyer used all politeness and mildness, sharp and unsatisfactory replies were received. Her meek and humble husband was present in court. Mr. Sweeney tried another innocent question, when the lady responded with vindictive fire flashing from her eyes: 'Mr. Lawyer, you needn't think you can catch me; no, sir; you can't catch my husband's attention.' Madam, I have not the slightest desire to catch you, and your husband looks to me as if he was sorry he had succeeded.' A ripple of laughter went round the courtroom, the judge stroked his mustache to hide a smile, and the clerk rapped for order."—Law Notes.

THE Dramatic Death of Roman Nose.

"In spite of his terrible wounds, the heroic Forsyth was thoroughly in command," Dr. Cyrus Townsend Brady writes, in telling the story of Forsyth's Rough Riders of '98 in the May Pearson's. "Waiting until the tactical moment when the Indians were but fifty yards away and coming at a terrific speed, he raised himself on his hands to a sitting position and cried, 'Now!'"

The men rose to their knees, brought their guns to their shoulders, and poured a volley right into the face of the furious advance. An instant later, with another cartridge in the barrel they delivered a second volley. Horses and men went down in every direction, but like the magnificent warrior he was, the Indians closed up and came sweeping down. The third volley was poured into them. Still they came. The war songs ceased by this time, but in undaunted spirit, still pealing his war cry above the crashing of the bullets, at the head of his band, with his magnificent determination unshaken, Roman Nose led such a ride as no Indian ever attempted before or since. And still those quiet, cool men continued to pour bullets into the horde. At the fourth volley the medicine man on left of the line, and the second in command, went down. The Indians hesitated at this reverse, but swinging his rifle high in the air in battle frenzy, the great war chief rallied them and they once more advanced. The fifth volley staggered them still more. Great gaps were opened in their ranks. Horses and men went down, but the impetus was so great and the courage and example of their leader so splendid that they came on unchecked. The sixth volley did the work.

"Just as he was about to leap upon the island Roman Nose and his horse were both shot to pieces. The force of the charge, however, was so great that the line was not yet entirely broken. The horsemen were within a few feet of the scouts when the seventh volley was poured into their very faces. As a gigantic wave meets a sharply jutted rock and is parted, falling harmlessly on either side of it, so was that charge divided, the Indians swinging themselves to the sides of their horses as they swept down the length of the island.

"The scouts sprang to their feet at this juncture and, almost at contact range, jammed their revolver shots into the disorganized masses. The Indians fled precipitately to the banks on either side, and the yelling of the war chants of the squares and children changed into walls of anguish and despair as they marked the death of Roman Nose and the horrible slaughter of his followers."

Five-Year-Old Boy Making Long Trip

Traveling Alone From Philadelphia to San Francisco to Meet His Father.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Fred Coggeshall, five years of age, left at 8 o'clock tonight for the Golden Gate. He has been made the special charge of the trans-continental from Philadelphia to San Francisco. The Grand Trunk railway brought him to Chicago, where he was transferred and placed in the special care of the agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, which road, in connection with the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, will land him in Oakland, Cal., where his father will meet him next Wednesday morning. This is one of the longest trips ever made by so young a child and the railroads show interest in him in order to show how they can safely handle children on trips of this character.

To the Ladies.

We want to remind you of the exquisite work we did in laundering your shirt waists last season. Our methods haven't changed.

TROY LAUNDRY,

156 Main St.

Contamination of Deep Wells.

By a series of experiments which proved how readily deep wells and springs could experience pollution, the town of Quitman, Georgia, has been saved from the danger of an epidemic of disease. In this place the water supply of the city is derived from wells, and in planning a sewerage system it was proposed to dispose of the public sewage by directing it through a borehole into an underground stream. The possibility that contamination might result, however, was early suggested, and led to practical experiments being undertaken by the United States Geological Survey and the Geological Survey of Georgia, in order to determine the matter definitely. Two tons of salt were placed in the well where it was planned to empty the sewage, and the water from the various wells which had been previously examined, especially as to their chlorine contents, was again analyzed, samples being taken at intervals during and sometimes after the experiment. It was found that the salt had permeated all of the wells in the town, demonstrating conclusively that disease germs could be readily communicated to the drinking water. These experiments are in line with some carried on in Europe several years ago, where it was found that bacteria, placed in certain wells, could be detected at other sources of water in the vicinity, and emphasizing the importance of carefully examining and safeguarding water supplies under all conditions.—Harper's Weekly.

KOLITZ EXCURSION

To Ogden.

Sunday May 1st, via Oregon Short Line. Round trip only $1.60. Special train leaves Salt Lake 10:00 a. m., returning leave Ogden 10:00 p. m. Candy served free on train. Everybody invited.

They Worked Patti's Husband.

Baron Cederstrom, the husband of Adeline Patti, was not up to the wiles of some of the folk he met in Pittsburg. The Baron is somewhat fastidious as to the various articles he uses, and his cigars are each "labeled" to cost 40 cents wholesale. The price may be one or two more or less, but the aroma of the tobacco would indicate that they are somewhat costly for ordinary, everyday consumption among folks who have to depend on a weekly wage. An interviewer who was taking the Swedish nobleman discovered from him that the great songstress hated cigarettes above everything else—not even excepting a small and frigid audience. He passed the word around, and so when a bunch of other callers met the Baron they were all smoking cigarettes. There was only one way to abate this nuisance, and so the Baron had to produce his cigar box. He never suspected he was being "worked," but the whole proceeding was little better than a shell game so far as he was concerned. Some of these cigars are still unsmoked, being kept as souvenirs of the "last farewell."—Kansas City Journal.

Weakness in men is caused by inflammation of the prostate gland. Oregon Kidney Tea cures this.

Largest Grapevine.

The largest grapevine in the world is growing in the Carpinteria valley, several miles east of Santa Barbara, Cal. It is called La Pava Grande. It was started from a cutting sixty-one years ago by a young Spanish woman, Dona Ayia. It is eight feet four inches in circumference at its base, and one of the horizontal branches measures more than three feet in circumference. The trellis covers about a third of an acre, and sixty heavy posts support it. The vine produces as many as 5000 bunches annually, at a conservative estimate, and its good yields are clusters measure twelve to fifteen inches in length and weigh six to eight pounds. Its owner estimates that in 1895 the vine yielded ten tons of grapes.

"77"

Cures Grip and

COLDS

Humphreys' Specifics cure by acting directly on the sick parts without disturbing the rest of the system.

No. CURES

1. FEVERS, Congestions, Inflammations.

2. WOUNDS, WORM FEVER or Worm Disease.

3. COLIC, Cramping and Wakefulness of Diarrhea of Children and Adults.

4. TOOTHACHE, Pains in the Head, Stomach, Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo.

5. DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, Weak Stomach.

6. BALDNESS, Eruptions, Erysipelas.

7. RHEUMATISM, or Rheumatic Pains.

8. FEVER AND AGUE, Malaria, Chills.

9. WHOOPING COUGH, Spasmodic Cough.

10. URINARY DISEASE, Gravel, Calculi.

11. URINARY INCONTINENCE, Wetting Bed.

At Drugists, 25 cents each or mailed, Cloth Bound Book mailed free.

Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John streets, New York.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Admiral Sir Cyrril Bridge of the British navy, who before his retirement, was very successful in the East, was in the city today, on his way to England. In discussing the opinion that very large battleships have been proved undesirable.